

Evaluation of School Board/Board Self-Evaluation

The Board of Education periodically shall establish realistic objectives related to Board procedures and relationships and shall, at the end of a specified length of time, measure its performance against the stated objectives through a self-evaluation process.

The following areas of Board operations and relationships are representative of those in which objectives may be set and progress appraised:

1. Board member orientation and continuing development
2. Board meetings
3. Fiscal management
4. Board-community relations and communications
5. Board-superintendent relations
6. Instructional management
7. Planning and goal setting
8. Board-staff relations
9. Legislative leadership
10. Policymaking
