COLORADO STATE TEST OPT OUT FORM for (Year) _____ Opt out requests must be renewed yearly.

In the State of Colorado, all school districts, including Swink School District 33, are required to administer various tests to students: CMAS (English Language Arts, Math, Science, Social Studies), PSAT (Preliminary College Admissions), and SAT (College Admissions) per C.R.S. 22-7-409.

As provided for in state and federal law, and district policy, parents may excuse their students from taking CMAS and state-mandated college preparatory and college admissions examinations.

If you choose to excuse your student from one or more state assessments, please complete the following information, sign it, and provide it to the school office.

I, (print parent name) _____ excuse my student, (student name) _____ in grade _____ from participating in the assessment indicated below (check all that apply):

NOTE: If you are choosing to opt your child out of assessments, they are still required to attend school and will have an alternative activity provided during the testing time.
